TRAININGS / CERTIFICATIONS

Web Development
Mar 2025 - Present
PHYSICS WALLAH, Virtual

I am currently enrolled in the PW Skills Web Development Course, which is still ongoing. So far, I have learned the basics of HTML and CSS. Through this course, I have gained hands-on experience in creating web pages using HTML elements and styling them with CSS. It has helped me build a strong foundation in front-end web development, and I look forward to learning advanced topics like JavaScript, frameworks, and backend technologies in the upcoming modules.
